CAMPAIGN GUIDE

Information about the campaign
and how to get involved

WHAT IS NATIONAL NUMERACY DAY?

National Numeracy Day builds brighter futures through confidence with numbers.

- It is run by independent charity National Numeracy and the campaign's Founding Supporter, KPMG.
- It is the UK's only day dedicated to everyday maths.
- It celebrates the importance of numbers in everyday life and inspires children and adults to improve their numeracy, because improving numeracy changes lives at home, work and school.
- National Numeracy Day has inspired people to take 1.5 million to improve their numeracy since 2018.
- Everything is free! The campaign's generous supporters ensure all our resources are free for everyone to use.

Watch the highlights from 2023

WHY IS NATIONAL NUMERACY DAY IMPORTANT?

- The UK's numeracy levels are significantly below the average for developed countries.
- 49% of the UK's working-age population have the expected numeracy levels of a primary school child.
- Millions of children leave school lacking number confidence. 30% of school-leavers (18-24s) feel anxious about using maths and numbers. They are the most maths-anxious adult group in the UK.
- Poor numeracy costs the UK economy £25 billion a year.
- Struggling with numbers can make people more vulnerable to debt, unemployment, poor health and fraud – all of which have been exacerbated by the cost-of-living crisis.

CAMPAIGN AIMS

The campaign drives:

Awareness

The campaign will raise awareness of the numeracy issue and will support people across the UK to see why understanding and working with numbers in real life – at work and at home – is so important.

The campaign will promote the wider benefits of good numeracy for communities, society and the UK economy.

Engagement

The campaign will encourage meaningful engagement through event attendance and use of our practical resources and activities which focus on our three main themes: managing money, getting on at work, and supporting children.

Action

The campaign will empower adults to improve their number confidence and skills by using the National Numeracy Challenge.

The campaign will inspire children to consider the ways they'll need to use numbers and maths outside of the classroom, from their hobbies and interests to their future careers.

National Numeracy Day has inspired people to take
1.5 million actions to improve numeracy since 2018

THE BIG NUMBER NATTER

Love it or loathe it, we all have something to say about maths!

The Big Number Natter is the UK's only nationwide conversation about numbers.

WHAT? The Big Number Natter is the only nationwide conversation about numbers. It's an opportunity to have a chat about numbers and change lives for the better. The story behind your lucky number, tips for bagging a bargain, calculations in your career, or helping kids with homework...love it or loathe it, everyone has something to say about maths!

WHY? Half the UK's working age adults have low numeracy levels, which makes people more vulnerable to debt, unemployment, poor health and fraud. But everyone can improve their numeracy and talking about numbers is a fantastic first step.

WHEN? This May! National Numeracy Day is on Wednesday 22 May 2024, and we'll be number nattering throughout the whole of May.

WHERE? Celebrities, experts and people across the UK will be sharing their own number stories on social media. Your organisation can get involved with our staff engagement resources.

STAFF ENGAGEMENT: THE BIG NUMBER NATTER

Get your organisation involved:

-  1. Hold a Big Number Natter internally with groups of colleagues or teams. Your toolkit includes resources to make this easy and straightforward for your teams. -  2. Internal communications: Share Big Number Natter videos, images and stories across your organisation. Ask colleagues and leaders to share videos and stories about their own experience of numbers, good or bad. Share individual stories or work together as a team to create something to share with the wider organisation.
